

MADE IN IOWA | Wednesday, May 7, 2014

Join the Silver Circle today for another interesting trip of products made in IOWA. Our first stop will be in Albia at the Kness Manufacturing Co., where they make a better mouse trap. Following lunch, the next stop is Kinze Manufacturing. This company makes everything from large grain carts and giant planters to the smallest sprockets and components. The next stop will be at the Woolen Needle in Williamsburg and was featured in the fall 2010 "Quilt Sampler" magazine where their "Bountiful Harvest" pattern was highlighted in an article. This trip includes a full day with a variety of stops that both men and women will find enjoyable. The cost for the entire day is $95, due at sign up.
